

Weighing the Options of the Affordable Care Act

February, 2013

Effective Jan. 1, 2014, the Affordable Care Act (ACA) requires that all American citizens and legal residents purchase qualified health insurance either individually or through their employer. In this article, Bullivant employment and employee benefits attorney Katherine Somervell discusses the key factors business owners need to consider in order to determine whether the mandate applies to their business.

Read Full Article: "Weighing the Options of the Affordable Care Act"